

Fellowships

In the year 2004, Sanskriti Pratishthan in collaboration with other organizations/individuals instituted fellowships in the fields of Journalism, Music and Dance. The objective of these fellowships is to promote excellence and encourage young, promising artists to advance in their chosen fields and provide an opportunity to enable the recipient to have both the resources and time to dedicate in their chosen field.

Prabha Dutt Fellowship - is awarded to young women journalists for excellence in Journalism.

- Ms. Toufiq Rashid, Correspondent, Indian Express (2004-05)
 - Ms. Bhasha Singh, Copy Editor Outlook Saptahik (2005-06)
 - Ms. Deepa A., Journalist, India Together (Electronic Magazine) (2006-07)
 - Ms. Anuradha Nagaraj, Principal Correspondent, Indian Express (2007-08)
 - Ms. Anupama Kumari, Journalist (2008-09)
 - Ms. Kanchan Vasdev, Journalist (2009-10)
-

Mani Mann Fellowship - in Hindustani Classical Music is awarded to young musicians to study and learn under the tutelage of an acclaimed guru of Indian Classical Music.

- Ms. Subhadhara Desai (2005-06)
 - Mr. Kumar Mardur (2006-07)
 - Mr. Shashank Maktedar (2007-08)
 - Smt. Manjusha Patil Kulkarni (2008-09)
-

Kalakriti Fellowship is awarded to talented young performing artists to advance their chosen art form.

- Ms. Diksha Upreti (2005-06)
 - Ms. Monisa Nayak (2006-07)
 - Ms. Rukmini Jaiswal (2007-08)
 - Ms. Mitul Sengupta (2008-09)
-

Geddes Scholarship - is awarded to advance Geddes's principles of town planning to Indian cities.

- Mr. Debashish Das (2007-08)